Texas Volunteer Leader of the Year Award Program Overview

Purpose

Volunteers are an integral part of and a vital asset to the continued success of the Texas SHRM affiliated chapters. The award is to recognize those whose volunteer efforts and impact are exemplary in serving the Human Resources community in the State of Texas.

Criteria

- Nominee must be an active SHRM affiliated chapter Board member or SHRM Texas State Council Board member
- Nominee has consistently and significantly contributed to the chapter or TSC and has volunteered his or her services time-after-time to the service of the chapter or TSC
- This individual has an outstanding record of participation in the Chapter or Council
- Their active dedication and enthusiasm demonstrate unparalleled commitment to the advancement of our profession through their hours of volunteerism

Award

- An HRSouthwest Conference student sponsorship will be donated in the honoree's name
- Full Conference Registration and up to 3 nights lodging
- A personalized recognition award presented on stage during Conference General Session. (All nominees will be announced during General Session)
- HRSouthwest Conference website recognition

Nomination Process and Timeline

- Any SHRM affiliated chapter member may submit a nominee using the Award Nomination Form. Submit forms to info@hrsouthwest.com
- Submissions will be accepted until August 1, 2017.
- The TSC Executive Leadership Team will select the recipient.
- Results will be announced no later than August 15, 2017.

Please Note

Only one winner will be selected. All nominees will be recognized. The conference registration does not include any pre-conference education. No additional travel expenses will be reimbursed. No self-nominations will be accepted. Any TSC Executive Leadership Team member that has been nominated is not eligible to serve on the selection committee. No current HRSouthwest Conference Board Members are eligible for nomination.
